Petitioning the Court to Grant Early Termination of Supervision

Cause

The offender's term of probation is set to expire on March 11, 2015. The United States Probation Office recommends the Court grant an early termination of probation supervision for Ms. Davis.

On or about March 1, 2011, Ms. Davis relocated from Georgia to the Northern District of California, where she completed 96 hours of community service, mental health counseling, and home detention. Ms. Davis performed exceptionally well and had no compliance-related problems. On July 30, 2012, jurisdiction of Ms. Davis' case was transferred from the Northern District of Georgia, to the Northern District of California. On November 13, 2013, Ms. Davis relocated to the Eastern District of California, where she has resided with her mother, her child, and her domestic partner.

On January 25, 2014, Ms. Davis completed the remaining four hours of community service. She continues to maintain full-time employment at the California Sinus Center in Walnut Creek as a Front Desk Receptionist and she has maintained a positive attitude towards supervision since the start of her probation. During her time on probation with the Eastern District of California, she has been supervised as a low-risk offender, and a recent criminal history check revealed no new law violations.

Therefore, based on the factors indicated above, it is respectfully recommended the Court grant an early termination of probation, as recommended by the Eastern District of California U.S. Probation Officer, Brenda Barron-Harrell. The Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.

Respectfully submitted,
